B. PRODUCTIVE UNITS

In the framework of your participation in AgriStability, you must provide your operation's number of productive units for your fiscal period ending in 2010. The number of productive units provided enables us to adjust your operation's reference year production margins in relation to its production capacity during the participation year.

For reference purposes, you will find in the table, the productive units of the last participation year for which you transmitted your financial information. They may be helpful to you in completing the table of productive units for the 2010 participation year.

In addition, we have shown the productive units listed in your crop insurance and stabilization insurance file for the 2010 participation year. They could be different from those appearing on your crop insurance certificates or your stabilization insurance payment sheets. They were established on the basis of the twelve-month period following the end of the fiscal period ending in 2009 and not for the period covered by the insurance year. Your productive units could be subject to an adjustment based on the period covered by your fiscal period, according to your 2010 declaration.

For the productions already entered, please complete any spaces that were left blank. Also report any other of your operation's productions. You must report your productive units based on the fiscal period ending in 2010. If you do not have enough space in the table, please add another sheet containing the same type of information.

To report all your operation's productive units based on your fiscal period, see the enclosed Guide for reporting productive units.

Notice to Participants

La Financière agricole du Québec (FADQ) commits to processing the information obtained to manage AgriStability, AgriInvest or Agri-Québec in strict confidentiality according to the provisions of the Act respecting Access to documents held by public bodies and the Protection of personal information (R.S.Q., c. A-2.1). The information may however be used in the framework of all FADQ programs or of any other programs it administers.

Moreover, as an AgriStability and AgriInvest administrator, La Financière agricole du Québec wishes to inform you that by registering in these programs, you consent to having the information communicated to Agriculture and Agri-Food Canada, for the purposes of audit, analysis, evaluation, program development and the issuing of payments relating to other programs.

Likewise, subject to a favourable ruling by the Commission d'accès à l'information, La Financière agricole du Québec is notifying you that it could, in the framework of an agreement with the Ministère de l'Agriculture, des Pêcheries et de l'Alimentation du Québec, exchange information needed in managing your file.

Furthermore, special terms apply if you participate in the Farm Income Stabilization Insurance program of Québec (ASRA). In accordance with that program, the amounts of the payments to which you are entitled, under your participation in AgriStability will be taken into account when calculating your stabilization insurance compensation. Consequently, any amount overpaid by ASRA will be deducted from these amounts.

In addition, in the framework of your participation in AgriStability, AgriInvest or Agri-Québec, you may be subject to an audit on a pre- or post-payment basis by La Financière agricole du Québec. Please also note that any information obtained, under your participation in these programs, could be communicated by La Financière agricole du Québec to the Canada Customs and Revenue Agency.

Finally, in accordance with the Parliament of Canada Act, no Member of the House of Commons shall be allowed to derive any financial advantage resulting from Canada's contributions under the AgriStability. Members of the Assemblée nationale du Québec and former federal public office holders and servants must comply with the conflict of interest guidelines in effect.

Program Participation

In order for farming operations to participate in the programs, the information found on this form must be transmitted to La Financière agricole. This document contains, among other things, the operation's identification number and authentication code assigned by La Financière agricole du Québec. If the farming operation chooses to transmit its financial information by an accredited financial information preparer, this information will grant that person access to the operation's file, making it possible for the preparer to process and transmit the information needed for participation in AgriStability, AgriInvest or Agri-Québec.

By participating in this program, the operation must:

- meet the eligibility conditions presented in the Program Handbooks;
- transmit, to La Financière agricole, its financial information for the 2010 year that was subject to an income (or loss) statement for tax purposes;
- ensure that the information provided in this document is accurate and complete;
- transmit, upon request, to La Financière agricole du Québec, any information needed to administer the program, notably tax information and proof to support the amounts of income and expenses reported in the financial statements;
- keep the participation support documents for a period of six years.
