I authorize La Financière agricole du Québec, hereinafter "FADQ," to disclose to the credit agencies, financial institution and notary identified in sections 2 and 3 of this form the documents and information deemed necessary for the processing of my application to participate in the Farm Financing Program, the Forestry Financing Program Regulations and, if applicable, the Sustainable Growth Investment Program, hereinafter referred to as "SGIP," and thereafter, if applicable, throughout the term of the loan(s) granted pursuant to this application for participation, in order to manage the loan.

I authorize any financial institution, credit agency, government department or agency, including offices that administer joint plans, any individual or group to provide the FADQ with the documents and information deemed necessary concerning my application to participate in the Farm Financing Program, the Forest Financing Program Regulations, and, if applicable, the PICD and, if applicable, throughout the term of the loan(s) granted pursuant to this application for participation, in order to manage the loan.

If I am applying for a forestry loan, I authorize the FADQ to disclose to the Ministère des Ressources naturelles et des Forêts and the Agence régionale de mise en valeur des forêts privées the documents and information deemed necessary concerning my application for participation in the Forest Financing Program Regulation and thereafter, if applicable, throughout the term of the loan(s) granted pursuant to this application for participation, in order to ensure the management of the loan.

These consents are valid for the entire duration of the processing of my application for participation in the Farm Financing Program, the Forest Financing Program Regulation, and if applicable, after the payment of all assistance granted under the PICD and thereafter, if applicable, throughout the term of the loan(s) granted pursuant to this application for participation, including any transfer of my loan(s) granted pursuant to this application for participation to the Special Accounts Branch, and shall terminate upon full repayment of the loan(s) granted pursuant to this application for participation.

10. Protection of Personal Information

In order to provide you with its products and services, La Financière agricole du Québec (FADQ) must collect, use, disclose, and process your personal information for the following purposes:

- confirm your identity, verify the accuracy of your personal information and update it for transaction purposes, as well as to reduce fraud or errors in the processing of your transactions;
- receive and process your requests for administrative purposes (opening and administering accounts, processing your requests for information about our products and services, making payments);
- process your applications for subscription/enrollment in financing programs or insurance and income protection programs;
- conduct analysis and modeling for the purposes of developing, designing, and improving the quality of products and services, performing internal audits, or conducting continuous improvement activities (e.g., through surveys);
- comply with legal and regulatory obligations;
- communicate with you, respond to your questions, requests or complaints.

Authorized FADQ staff treat the personal information entrusted to them as confidential. The personal and confidential information collected in this form is essential for the management and administration of the programs covered. Failure to provide this information may delay processing or result in refusal. If consent to disclosure is withdrawn, the FADQ will not be able to disclose any information or receive any information from the third parties mentioned above.

This information will only be disclosed to authorized persons, agents, and organizations, in accordance with the terms and conditions set out in the Act respecting Access to documents held by public bodies and the Protection of personal information (RLRQ, chapter A-2.1), hereinafter referred to as the "Access Act."

This information may also be used for research, statistical, study, survey, investigation or audit purposes, in accordance with the provisions of the Access Act.

You may also exercise your rights of access and correction provided for in the Access Act by contacting the FADQ.
