For animals missing from the FADQ's production report

- Make sure that you made all your declarations to the ATQ before contacting your La Financière agricole advisor.
- Be sure to have your ATQ inventory in hand.
- Note that your production report is available in your client file on our website.

Which weights will be used by the FADQ?

For animals insurable under ASRA (keep proof of the animals' marketing)

Recognized stakeholders – Actual weight

- Recognized auction barns in and outside of Quebec
- Slaughterhouses*:
 - federal
 - provincial
 - local
- Recognized slaughterhouses outside of Quebec
- Producer insured for the Steer product and slaughter cattle under ASRA (if the producers respects the terms of the program)
- Weigh-in officers (supervised weighing services offered by Quebec auction barns, as well as the Centre de développement du porc du Québec)
- Centre de développement du porc du Québec for animals evaluated and sold after genetic testing (testing station and genetic evaluation program – supervised version)

The actual weight is also used when a sale to a seller is followed by an entry declared by one of his/her buyers when the events take place within the seven calendar-day period processed by the FADQ.

Non-recognized stakeholders – Estimated weight (limited to 450 lbs)

- Seller or another cow-calf producer
- Bound for outside of Quebec (unknown buyer, with no entry declaration on his/her site at ATQ)
- Slaughterhouses or auction barns in Quebec or outside of Quebec if not recognized for weight

*Custom slaughtering by federal and provincial slaughterhouses – the client must hold a retail license permitting the meat to be sold to consumers

What animals are not insurable under ASRA?

- Custom slaughtering by a local slaughterhouse
- Direct sale of live animals to a consumer
- Personal consumption
- Condemned animals
- Animals weighing less than 450 lbs at sale
- Animals with no date of birth

What to declare and to whom?

At ALL TIMES to the ATQ OR FADQ, DEPENDING ON THE CASE

Within 7 days of affixing the tags or of the event if INSURED FOR COW-CALVES ONLY

Within 45 days of the event or when the animal reaches 700 lbs if INSURED FOR COW-CALVES and STEERS. The FADQ transmits this information to the ATQ for the clients concerned.

VITAL information required for each event declared:

- FADQ client number
- ATQ producer number (if the declaration is being made to the ATQ)
- Tag number
- Operating site number (declaration site)
- Cow-calf production (VEE) for declarations to the ATQ
